Born and raised in Hong Kong, Pastor Brian Lam came to Houston in 1975 to study at UH in Computer Science. Upon graduation, he felt the call of God to go into full-time ministry. He received the Master of Theology in 1982 and the Doctor of Ministry in 1993 from Dallas Theological Seminary. He had served at Houston Chinese Church for 15 years before he planted Fort Bend Community Church in 1997 with the mission to pursue the heart of God through growing communities of Christ-like disciples and to reach all people.

Pastor Brian is married to Lily and they have two children. They live in Sugar Land, Texas.
