Before her retirement, Helen Cheung served as Campus Minister at the China Graduate School of Theology. She graduated from CGST in 1985 and subsequently assisted her husband in pastoral ministry while also teaching courses at Hong Kong theological seminaries. In 1992, she returned to CGST for further studies, earning a Master of Counseling Education degree in 1994. In 1995, she accompanied her husband to the United Kingdom for further studies, earning a Master of Theology degree from the University of Edinburgh in the United Kingdom and Ireland in 1998, specializing in pastoral theology. Upon returning to Hong Kong, she directed the Women's Theology Education Program at the Extension Department of CGST from 1999 to 2005. In 2005, she transitioned to serve as Campus Chaplain at CGST, promoting the spiritual formation of students until her retirement in 2014. Throughout her ministry in churches and seminaries, Ms. Leung has been deeply involved in counseling and spiritual guidance, with a particular focus on nurturing the spiritual growth of believers. In recent years, she has engaged extensively with brothers and sisters in mainland China in this area.
